

PRIVACY POLICY

NextEMR, LLC (“NextEMR”) understands how important the privacy of personal information is to the users of our website. This Privacy Policy applies to the nextemr.com website which includes any sub-sites contained on such website (collectively, the “Site”). This Privacy Policy will tell you what information we collect about you and about your use of the Site. It will explain the choices you have about how your personal information is used and how we protect that information.

By using the Site, you consent to the collection and use of your information as set forth in this Privacy Policy, the Site’s Terms of Use [\[link to Terms of Use\]](#) as then currently in effect, and the Website Use Agreement you entered into when you received your username and password. Any changes to our Privacy Policy or the Terms of Use will be posted on the Site. As a result, please check back periodically to ensure you have the most current Privacy Policy and/or Terms of Use.

The Site contains links to other websites. NextEMR is not responsible for, nor has it reviewed the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage you to look for and review the privacy statements of each and every website that you visit through a link on the Site, or otherwise.

This Privacy Policy does not cover email submissions to NextEMR of content, business information, ideas, concepts or inventions and the like. If you want to keep such content or information private or proprietary, do not send them in an email to NextEMR.

We hope that reading our Privacy Policy gives you a clear idea of how we manage information about you.

NON-PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your use of the Site indicates your consent to our collection of non-personal information about you. We collect this information through the use of cookies, web beacons, or log files. A cookie is a small text file that is stored on your hard drive for record keeping purposes. A web beacon is a small invisible GIF file, usually embedded in the website, that helps track the online movements of web users. We also gather information in our log files, as do most web sites. This information includes internet protocol (“IP”) addresses, browser types, referring pages and other information. The information in the log files is aggregated and does not identify individual users.

We use the information collected through cookies, web beacons and log files to understand how our users navigate our Site, and to determine common traffic patterns, including what site the user came from. We may use this information to improve our Site, to make Site navigation recommendations, and to help redesign our Site in order to make your experience on our Site more efficient and enjoyable. You also have choices with respect to cookies. By changing your internet browser settings, you have the choice to accept all cookies, to be notified when a cookie is set, or to reject all cookies. Refer to your browser’s “help” files for instructions. If you choose to reject all cookies you will be unable to use those services or engage in activities that require the placement of cookies.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your personal information will be used by NextEMR in accordance with the Website Use Agreement.

NO DISCLOSURE TO LINKED SITES

For your convenience there are links to websites operated by companies other than NextEMR that are not contractors who provide content or services through the Site. NextEMR does not endorse and is not responsible for the privacy practices of these sites. If you choose to link to one of these third-party websites, you should review the privacy policy posted on such website to understand how such website collects and uses your personal information.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time. The new Privacy Policy will be posted on this Site. Your continued use of the Site will indicate acceptance of the changes to our Privacy Policy. Please exit this Site immediately if you do not agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy or any revised Privacy Policy.
